Bob's Memories of Becky

Becky was very active in the dairy industry. Becky and I along with Jan Albrect started the cattle show, The Midwest Jersey Jamboree. Then Becky and I started the All-State Junior Jersey Show. She loved juniors and watching them develop. Becky was very adamant about doing things the right way and not cheating.

Becky loved keeping in touch with her granddaughters. She was so proud of them and their accomplishments with cattle and archery.

Becky loved to hear the message of Jesus' birth at the Zion Lutheran Church Christmas Eve program.

Becky loved country music, especially concerts and award shows. Her favorites were Brad Paisley, George Strait, Keith Urban, and Carrie Underwood. Becky made life long friends attending country music concerts.

Becky was always looking for a bargain and hunting for items that were on sale. She enjoyed the treasures found at Goodwill. Becky always wanted things to be neat and clean, including the lawn cut on time and the cows being clean.

Becky loved sports, especially the Ohio State Buckeyes. She grew to like the Minnesota Vikings, Twins, and Timberwolves. Becky didn't like the Timberwolves trade of Ricky Rubio because he was her favorite.

Becky treated people with respect while working at the hardware store. She knew all of the items at the store and was always helpful to the customers.

Our love didn't start with a bang, it came softly with respect for each other's feelings, never wanting to hurt the other one. Our love grew stronger day by day, year by year. I can count on one hand the times she called me Bob because it was always "Honey". This life will miss a phenomenal person.
