

BARBWIRE

By Barb Lumley

CANFIELD FAIR HOLSTEIN SHOW REPORT

Lovely weather, beautiful cows and great people. All that and more could be found at the Canfield (Mahoning County) Fair Holstein Show held Friday, August 31, 2018 at the fairgrounds in Canfield, Ohio. One hundred and forty five (145) registered Holsteins paraded the ring to be judged by Adam Liddle, Liddleholme Holsteins, Argyle, New York. Judge Liddle and his family milk seventy five (75) registered Holsteins, with thirty four (34) cows classified Excellent, of those, eleven (11) are scored Excellent 94 points and two (2) are scored Excellent 96 points. He has judged numerous shows all over the United States, including World Dairy Expo, and has judged numerous shows in other countries. As he evaluated the cattle, he commented that two of the important things he looked for were good feet and legs and correct rumps. A total of ninety one (91) calves and heifers and fifty four (54) cows were shown. Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor awards went to R & P Kiko Family Farms LTD, Salem, Ohio.

Junior Champion of the show would come from the winter calf class, C-4 Lennon Pandora, owned and shown by R-Time Holsteins, Rick and Lindsey Henry, Enon Valley, Pennsylvania and Tom and Erin Uber, Adamsville, Pennsylvania. She was sired by Belfast Lennon. Reserve Junior Champion was the spring yearling, LI Sharman Brillittle, owned by Louis Liming, Lou-Ida Farms, Mineral ridge, Ohio. Honorable Mention went to the spring calf, Riceton Crush Iris, shown by Riceton Farm, Gary rice, Farmdale, Ohio.

Grand Champion and Intermediate Champion is the senior three year old, Kiko Gold Chip Maddie, shown by R & P Kiko Family Farms LTD, Salem, Ohio. She is sired by MR Chassity Gold Chip-ET. Reserve Grand Champion and Reserve Intermediate Champion is the senior three year old, Kiko Aftershock Jackie 1125, shown by R & P Kiko Family Farms LTD, Salem, Ohio. Senior Champion and Honorable Mention Grand Champion is the four year old, Kiko Goldchip Kirsten 1033, also shown by R & P Kiko Family Farms LTD.

Honorable Mention Intermediate Champion is the second place senior three year old, M-Signature Gorgeous, shown by Signature Cattle, Mason Mazzaro, Williamsfield, Ohio.

Reserve Senior Champion is the 100,000 pound cow, Ouric Alexander Spark, shown by Ouric Holsteins, Howard Moff and Steve Moff and Family, Canfield, Ohio. Honorable Mention Senior Champion is the second place four year old, Milk & Honey Atwood Satin shown by Den-Be Farm, Dennis & Betsy Musser, Enon Valley, Pennsylvania.

The ribbons and awards were presented by Mahoning County Dairy Princess, Claire Headland. Assisting in the ring was Jim Ray with Lori Coler in charge of checking in classes and recording the placings. Steve Moff, Canfield Fair Board member is in charge of the dairy department.